MALTBY STREET

WINE HOUSE

Maltby Street Wine House

Nestled under the iconic railway arches of Maltby Street—just steps from the Tower of London and the vibrant market—our wine house is the perfect venue for hosting private events or celebrating special occasions.

Our extensive wine collection, curated from around the globe, showcases the diversity and richness of the world's most renowned winemaking regions. To complement our exceptional wines, we offer a thoughtfully crafted menu featuring artisanal cheese and charcuterie boards, along with flavourful small plates—each dish designed to elevate the wine experience.

Our dedicated team will work closely with you to plan an event tailored to your needs.

MALTBY STREET

WINE HOUSE

A high-angle, close-up photograph of four hands holding wine glasses filled with red wine, clinking them together in a toast. The glasses are arranged in a circular pattern, and the wine is a deep red color. The background is blurred, showing parts of the people's clothing and the interior of a wine house.

MENUS

A photograph of two brandy snifter glasses filled with a golden-amber liquid, likely brandy or cognac. The glasses are positioned on a light-colored wooden table with a visible grain. In the background, a blurred interior of a bar or restaurant is visible, featuring a person in a blue shirt and a brown leather chair. The word "MENUS" is overlaid in a large, white, serif font on the left side of the image.

A wooden charcuterie board is the central focus, displaying a variety of gourmet items. It includes several slices of prosciutto, salami, and other cured meats. There are also wedges of different cheeses, including a wedge of blue cheese. Fresh vegetables like cherry tomatoes, grape tomatoes, and a cucumber are scattered around the meats. A bunch of green grapes and a large leaf of basil are also present. The board is set on a rustic wooden surface.
